

Required from the start of the Autumn Term 2022, the Governors are seeking to appoint 2 creative EYFS teachers who can inspire and motivate children helping to give them a flying start to learning. Both positions are permanent and both are part time; a Reception class teacher (13 hours) to teach Thursday and Friday and a Nursery teacher (15 hours) to teach Wednesday pm - Friday.

Decoy Community Primary School and First Steps Nursery is a thriving primary school in Newton Abbot where all staff are committed to providing an engaging, broad and balanced curriculum for our children. Our staff team are highly skilled practitioners who plan for learning through a range of experiences to develop independence, exploration and resilience.

The successful candidates will:

- have the ability to work as part of, and contribute to, a very supportive staff team.
- have the ability to provide exciting learning opportunities for children.
- have consistently high expectation of children's learning and behaviour.
- be able to work collaboratively with colleagues, parents and the wider school community.
- be reflective and committed to developing their own practice.
- be committed to contributing to the wider opportunities for all children.
- have some experience of working in an Early Years Foundation Stage setting.

Visits to our school are encouraged and you will receive a warm welcome. Please contact our admin team in the school office on 01626 353282 to make an appointment.
